ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

We can only imagine what young budding artists still in education feel within the climate of the pandemic. At 508 Gallery, we understand from our perspective within the arts and culture sector that things have been different and very difficult this year.

This is why we have designed this programme to support and encourage young artists through the first steps of their career.

We have curated some activities below which we can tailor to current teaching topics, year of study and also the examination boards.

We can provide a list of activities which we can implement into the KS1 art classes too.

SCHEDULED ACTIVITIES

These can all be tailored to be online or physically.

- Art Therapy classes
- Meet the artist
- Art classes from our artists
- School visits to the gallery
- Private Views adapted for families
- Chats with our art consultants
- Art History adapted masterclasses
- Additional sessions supporting the national curriculum for students
- Employability advice for working in the artistic industry

- Invitations to selected exhibition Private Views and artist talks
- Personal private viewing for your staff, parents, children and alumni

- Art Gallery and Artists' Studio visits

ABOUT US

508 Gallery is a London based independent contemporary Art Gallery with a mission to create a platform that is indispensable and speaks to all art collectors and artists globally. In addition, 508 Gallery aims to promote freedom of creative expression, discover creative work, and share remarkable artworks that will spark the creative fire and great inspiration.

We specialise in emerging art, ranging from abstract through to figurative. We bring something new, fresh and exciting to the art world and the Kings Road. We have also featured on the BBC and The Times.
